

Mental Health & Justice (MHJ) Court Support & Diversion Services

MHJ Court Support & Diversion Services work with individuals living with mental illness who have criminal charges pending at the Metro East (Scarborough) and Metro West (Etobicoke) courts. These individuals may be diverted from the court system and connected to mental health and support services in the community. Court Support Services also provide consultation for individuals who do not qualify for diversion, linking them to services to facilitate bail or to assist with sentencing. Where needed, Court Support Services provides intensive case management to clients. In addition, information and consultation is provided to lawyers, the judiciary, probation and bail supervisors, and families.
